Things could be worse. You haven't seen a real klunker until you've visited the world-famous Ugly Truck Contest in Pelican Falls, Minnesota. Every year on July 8th, owners drive their gnarly rigs to this small town hoping their truck will be the ugliest! Here's what it takes to gross out the judges:

- Rust, inside and out
- A smelly interior (YUCK!!)
- A multi-colored exterior (oooh, classy)

During a new moon the sky is dark and you can see pictures in the sky made of stars,

The Power Rangers rely on Rocky's superb karate skills and quick mind. As The Red Ranger, he draws his power from Tyrannosaurus

Hey, Power Ranger fans! How do you like our magazine? What would you like to see in our pages? We want to hear from you! Here are some letters we received from fans just like you . . .

Dear Power Rangers,

Thank you for spotlighting my alter ego, Lord Zedd, in the Winter issue, and for the pictures of some of the monster creations that wreak havoc on Angel Grove. The magazine looks great!

-Robert Axelrod (The Voice of Lord Zedd, Two-Headed Parrot, and Finster too!), Sherman Oaks, California

Dear Power Rangers,

I just got two of your magazines. I think they are great. I love them. And what I would like to see more of in your magazine is the comics of the Power Rangers and those posters that have every Power Ranger on them. Also I love your show. I think it's terrific. And you are all my favorite Rangers.

Lois Johes, New York, New York
Lois — we're glad you like the comics. Check out the new one on page 21.

Dear Power Rangers,

I really like your magazine. I like Kimberly because she is funny. And I like Bulk and Skull. The White Ranger is totally awesome. I have one question. Which one of you is the youngest (in real life)? And which is the oldest?

-Alex Smith, N.D.M., Iowa

Alex, the youngest of the group in real life is Adam, the Black Ranger. The oldest is Billy, the Blue Ranger.

Dear Morphin Mail.

Hello, we are two mega Power Rangers fans from England. Our friend from the States sent us a copy of the premiere issue. It's just terrific. We hope to join the fan club.

We really hope the Mighty Morphin Power Rangers Magazine will be available in England. There are a lot of Power Rangers fans over here.

—Maureen and David Neighbour, Kent, England Maureen and David, we hope to have the magazine available internationally very soon.

Dear Power Rangers.

I'm seven years old. I love your magazines. I've got two of your magazines so far. I like your new Zords, especially the White Tigerzord. Also, how do I join the Power Rangers club?

THE MOVIE. IF NOT, WE KNOW YOU'LL CHECK IT OUT SOON. MIGHTY MORPHIN POWER RANGERS MAGAZINE WENT BEHIND THE SCENES AT THE MAKING OF THE MOVIE IN AUSTRALIA. HERE'S WHAT WE FOUND OUT ON THE MOVIE SET.

> What's the Story: In the movie, the Power Rangers fight their greatest battle against the ultimate evil enemy - the purple and slimy Ivan Ooze™ But never fear! The movie begins with the Power Rangers defeating Ivan Ooze and his henchmen, the Rangers' amazing powers! In order to save the universe from Ivan Ooze, the Power Rangers must learn an even greater new power - the ancient martial art of Ninjetti. (See them in their Ninja gear in our exclusive movie pullout in this issue!) Australia

The Land Down

The Power Rangers spent three months in Australia filming the movie. What did they like best about "the land down under"? Rocky, the Red Ranger (Steve Cardenas), says, "One of the best things about coming to Australia and working on the movie was that it brought us all closer together—the new Power Rangers, like me, and the original ones."

"Shooting in Australia was different The food is different. They drive on the wrong side of the road I loved it!" says Billy, the Blue Ranger (David Yost).

For most of the Rangers, this trip to Australia's Gold Coast was their first time away from the USA. They weren't used to the Australian "bush tucker." Luckily, Australia had something that made the Rangers feel right at home: McDonald's. Rocky and Adam are especially big McDonald's hamburger fans and ate them as much as possible.

There was a McDonald's across from the studio where the movie was being filmed. One day, the Rangers went over in their Ninja outfits and ordered lunch!

> Wow-how would you like to eat burgers and "chook" with the Power Rangers?

Morphin Time: The Power

The Ooze-iest Villain of All, Ivan Ooze: Ivan Ooze is made of gooey purple ooze that he throws everywhere. He makes the ooze to give to kids because it has a special power.

This is no ordinary ooze—it makes parents disappear!

Everyday, it took the makeup people four hours to put the oozy makeup on Ivan and his Oozemen™ and two hours to take it off. That added an extra six hours to their already long 12 hour workdays on the set. Was it worth it? Just check out the Oozeman's pretty face!

What you'll need:

A pair of scissors Any coin

Directions:

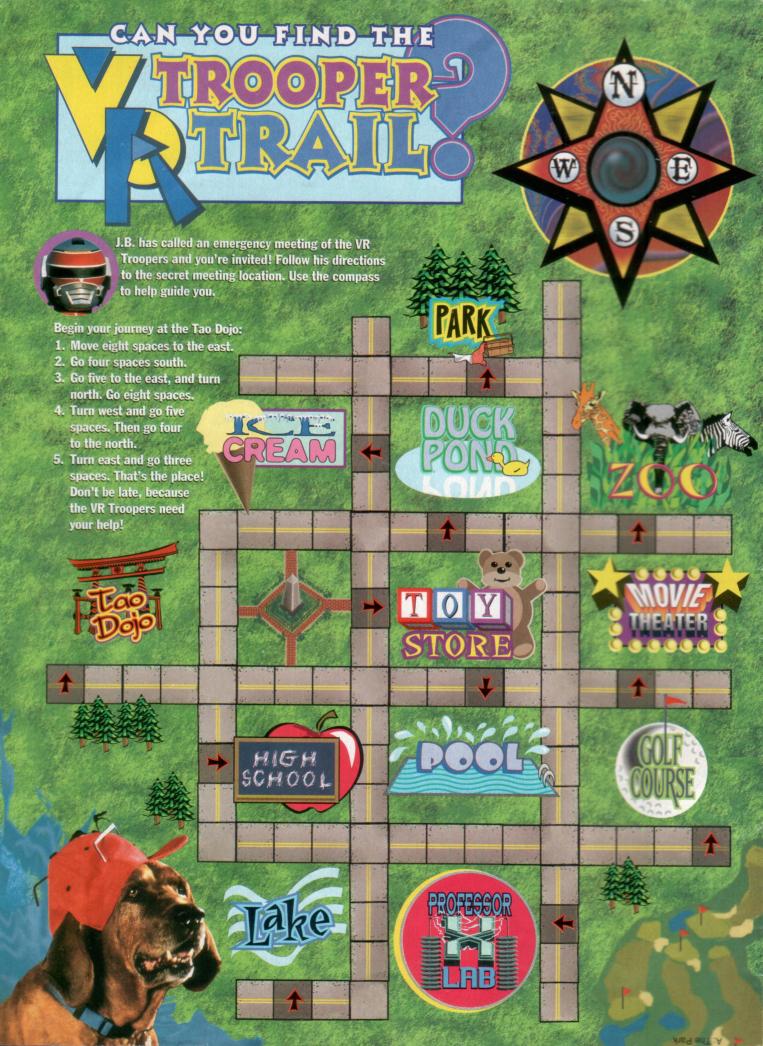

- · Ask an adult to help you cut out the
- Power Ranger pieces.

 Stack all the Power Ranger pieces on the space labeled "Angel Grove."

 Begin the game with the White
- Ranger.
 •Move Tommy through the "Z" by flipping a coin:
- •If you flip heads, Tommy defeats the creature and can move to the next
- •If you flip tails, he has been defeated and is out of the game.
- •When you lose a battle, choose the next piece from the stack and continue from where the previous Power Ranger was defeated. Flip the coin again, and continue the adventure.

Note: Six spaces on the board allow you to rescue defeated Power Rangers. Return a rescued Power Ranger to the stack of pieces on the "Angel Grove" space. That Power Ranger may reenter the battle if necessary.

If you can defeat Lord Zedd--even if it's with your last remaining Power Ranger— you win! Good luck!
